TRAVERS SAYS VARDON IS GREATEST GOLFER IN THE WORLD

Harry Vardon.

Jerome D. Travers, open golf champion of the United States, says that Harry Vardon, the Scotch player, and six times world's champion golfer, is the greatest player the game has ever known.

In a detailed discourse on Vardon's method of play, Travers points out that control is the largest factor in the Scotchman's success.

Travers says of him: "Vardon seems to play each stroke the easiest and the simplest way, which is the answer to perfect form. He takes the short cut. 'The game is hard enough,' he says, 'without making it any harder.'"

Spiders work for a living. There is a colony of 200 spiders in Hebeke, N. J., which start work and stop work when the whistle blows. They are probably the most indispensable workmen in one of the largest surveying instrument factories in this country. It is their duty to spin the delicate thread which is used for the cross hairs to mark the exact center of the object lens in the surveyor's telescope.

The spiders produce only during August and September. In that time they spin thousands of yards of web, which is wound upon metal frames and stored away until needed. A few weeks ago the entire colony, for no apparent reason, went on a strike. Everybody was worried until the "forewoman" of the spiders after patient coaxing finally induced them to begin spinning again.

Spider web is the only suitable material yet discovered for the cross

REGARDLESS OF EXPENSE. The newly rich couple went at once to New York with two friends. They visited one of the noted cafes for luncheon. As they seated themselves Mrs. Parvenu whispered to her husband:

"Ask for a menu, Jack." Parvenu puffed out his chest and chuckled.

"One menu only?" he said. "One menu for four? Oh, no; I'll do the thing well, now I've started it. Hebe, waiter, four menus—fresh ones, mind, and see that they're not overdone."

Where the Debt Lies—"I observe," said the fiend, "that Mr. Rockefeller says he owes much of his success to golf."

"It was my notion," said the low-brow, "that most men owe much of their golf to success."—St. Louis Republic.
